

I'd like to comment on KLOV. My whole family can listen to it without worrying about language content and obscene topics. I would never want to lose it, because it serves the whole family. Not many radio stations can say that. This is a rare and wonderful thing in this day and age.... we are daily encouraged and supported by the wholesome values KLOV reflects. please don't discontinue this for some other channel, because we love this one! thank you!